You and your team have done a good job of getting the word out. I think it is fairly typical for people to ask for more time for whatever reason or motive. My take is those that are asking for more time have been fully engaged for years and 60 days should be plenty of time to review and comment. When is the last time you were able to spend 60 days or more reviewing documents :-)

Have a great day and I look forward to seeing you sometime soon.

ps and BTW - the DEQ Director recruitment has been extended to the end of June. If you know of anyone that might be interested encourage them to apply. If someone wants to talk to me about the job they can call me at (b) (6)

Thanks Dick. I'm looking forward to the comment period. We are getting a lot of heat for indicating it will be only sixty days. We don't have much, if any, flexibility on that if we are to get to a ROD by year end. Thanks for all the hard work you put in to get us to this point with a solid plan.
